Students Sing, Play and Display Their Talents

By Ron Hedberg

Once again, students were able to display their talents at the annual Spring Concert and Art Fair. This year the event was held May 15.

The senior band played "Sounds of Simon and Garfunkel", "Russian Song & Dance", and "Marching Up Broadway". The jazz band also performed. They played "Bottom Line", "Cantina Band", "Solitude", and "It Ain't Necessarily So". Miss Boldig also directed the junior high band at the concert.

The senior choir sang "You Got to Have the Rain", "Soon-ah Will Be Done", "Sunrise, Sunset", "If By His Spirit", and one of their big concert numbers, "O Savior Rend the Heavens Wide".

The swing choir entertained us with "What Kind of Fool Am I?", "Back in Your Own Backyard", and "Good Day". The junior choir also demonstrated their talents under the direction of Mr. Nygren.

During the evening, there were many things to see. Shop projects, artwork, reports, and many other interesting things were displayed for everyone to see. These exhibits demonstrated that there is talent in the students of Luck High School; sometimes in areas you wouldn't even expect from a small school like ours.

Look Out!

Here Come The Freshmen!

By Sue Leigh

Even though the end of May is known mainly for the loss of our seniors, we shouldn't forget that there will be a whole new crop of LHS freshmen coming in to fill the gap next year.

I asked the class of '83 what they thought high school would be like. Most of them said it would be a big change. Many of them commented, "I think it will be fun," but some said "A big waste of time...", "sorta boring...", "or just something to do until I leave home."

There were mixed feelings about the studies and classes. Over half the eighth grade thought schoolwork would be harder with lots more of it. Some, however, looked on the bright side and called homework interesting, challenging, and even exciting!?!

Some had unusual impressions of classes such as "the teachers will be nicer...", "a big rush to get to class...", "classes will seem longer," but most were looking forward to more privileges, pep fests, and dances. They were anxious to join clubs and get rid of "the idea of being in junior high."

"Looking forward to the sports" was a frequent comment of incoming freshmen. The weight machine, football, and basketball were at the top of the list of enjoyable athletic activities.

None of the eighth graders mentioned the other "fun" activities of freshman such as eating last or walking down the hall in one flipper on initiation day. But one girl had a comment that sums it all up. "I think high school will be very nice because we only have four more years left!"

"Genius is patience." Buffon

Senior Survey

By Jane Everson

Each year, the seniors are asked to select the people they think are the most outstanding in certain categories. The results of this year's voting is as follows:

MOST LIKELY TO SUCCEED: Jill Sandstrom, Jim Cruthers.

MOST ATHLETIC: Barb Melin, Ronnie Steen.

MOST STUDIOUS: Jane Everson, Ron Hedberg.

BEST LOOKING: Kelly Olson, Jeff Jensen.

CUTEST: Kelly Olson, Jerry Petersen & Jacque Hawkins (Tie).

BEST BODY: Kris Swerkstrom, Jeff Jensen & Reed Stevens (Tie).

BEST DRESSED: Kris Swerkstrom, Jim Cruthers.

BIGGEST FLIRT: Liz Memmer, Alan Tomlinson.

BEST PARTIER: Barb Melin, Jeff Jensen.

FUNNIEST: Deb Grambow, Lowell Johnson.

BEST PERSONALITY: Lori

Jerrick, Jerry Petersen.

CLASS FAVORITE: Lori Jerrick, Lowell Johnson.

BEST HAIR: Kelly Olson, Bill Rebrovich.

BEST DANCER: Debbie McNeeley, Jim Cruthers.

MUNCH-OUT KING & QUEEN: Alan Tomlinson, Kelly Olson.

DON JUAN & DONNA JUANITA: Alan Tomlinson, Kelly Olson.

To add a new twist to the survey, Jim Sorenson asked the computer to pick its choices in these categories along with others. Keep in mind that the names were chosen strictly at random and were not based on any factual information! The computer picked the following:

MOST LIKELY TO SUCCEED: Kathy Berg, Mike Tyler.

MOST ATHLETIC: Cathy Tolan, Ron Hedberg.

MOST STUDIOUS: Jill Sandstrom, Mike Tyler.

BEST LOOKING: Jane Everson, Ken Johnson.

CUTEST: Gretchen Nies, Jeff Skow.

BEST BODY: Jane Everson, Bill Rebrovich.

BEST DRESSED: Cathy Tolan, Bill Rebrovich.

BIGGEST FLIRT: Kathy Berg, Jeff Jensen.

EASIEST PICK-UP: Jean Walker, Todd Medchill.

BEST PARTIER: Brenda Leisch, James Cruthers.

FUNNIEST: Rhonda Rasmussen, Duane Mortensen.

BEST PERSONALITY: Liz Memmer, Ron Steen.

BEST DANCER: Debbie McNeeley, Todd Medchill.

MUNCH-OUT KING & QUEEN: James Carpenter, Gretchen Nies.

FUNNIEST SHAPE: Brenda Leisch, James Cruthers.

DON JUAN & DONNA JUANITA: Debby McNeeley, Alan Tomlinson.

Where's Your Proof?

"You're out of your silly mind."

"Am not. You're the one who's crazy."

"Nonsense. I can prove I'm sane."

"How?"

"Here's my certificate of release from the state institute for the insane. You got your release?"

"Sunshine" Styles Features at FHA Style Show

By Sue Leigh

The FHA gave us a taste of spring at their annual style show. Held on May 7 at 8:00, the members modeled the latest styles from Lynda's and also garments they had made.

"Sunshine Styles" was the theme for this year's show and the clothes modeled really gave us a preview of summer.

The FHA also held their installation of officers and awards night that evening. With the prom decorations still up, it made a colorful and beautiful event. So, the next time it gets rainy and looks like summer will never come, remember the sunshine styles promising summer is just around the corner.

Metric Week

By Ron Hedberg

Metric week was declared to be the week of May 7-13. The purpose of the week is to promote the conversion of the United States from the English system to the metric system of measurements. The metric system is often associated with the International System of Units, commonly known as SI, which most nations in the world use.

Luck High School participated with a bulletin board display and a guessing contest. These activities gave us all a taste of what the United States will be like in the future when the metric system is adopted.

Students Commute to UW-RF and Compute

By Ron Hedberg

How can a computer terminal type by itself? What does all of the checking for errors? If all Luck has is a computer terminal, how big is the actual computer?

These questions, and more, were answered for any computer science student who wished to know the answers at a computer users' meeting at UW-River Falls. The meeting was held April 24, and 16 students along with Mr. Knudson, the computer science teacher, attended.

When the class arrived at the campus, students were pretty much left alone to do what they wanted and to eat whenever and wherever they pleased. However they were required to attend 3 of the sessions. This was not difficult for most of the students to do as there were 12 different sessions in four time periods during the day. There were a few students, though, who couldn't manage this and spent their time doing other things, some of which the campus guards did not approve of.

Mr. Knudson made a presentation at one of the sessions and demonstrated some of the programs which he and students at Luck High School had written. These programs were both educational and entertaining for all watching.

Other sessions provided information on computer cartography (map making), new games, a new set of lessons in English and history, things being done in other schools, and general information.

Tours of the computer facilities were given to those interested and an attempt was made by the advanced math class to use the plotter to sketch a graph.

After the activities of the day were done, the return trip was made with a stop at New Richmond to let off some tracksters.

Terse Verse

Keep your troubles; work 'em out. Other troubles are about. Face yours, then, with grit to win And thank those troubles you're not in.

On Road To Frustration

Keep to the right... Stash your trash... Don't walk on the grass... Curb your dog... Get a haircut... Don't bite off more than you can chew... Change your socks... Speak up or shut down... Lose some weight... Mind your own business... Keep your nose to the grindstone... Move to the rear of the bus... Turn off the TV... Sit still... Don't pick the flowers... Blow your nose... Be on time... Fasten your seat belt... Tackle one thing at a time... Remember to say thank you... Smile-even when it hurts... Wipe your feet... Comb your hair... Wait for the light... Sleep soundly... Have a sense of humor... Practice... Don't pick your nose... Pay attention!... Correct your mistakes... Watch your step... Pay your dues... Count your blessing... Think!

Stop... look... listen... scream!

Impressions, Take II

By Ann Langel

In the fall, I did an article on what people thought of the new addition. Now, after having spent a full school year in the building, people told me what they thought of it, and their likes and dislikes.

Brian Clausen- I like it. The carpeting makes it a lot quieter.

Cindy Patrick- I like it. It's really nice. It makes other schools-compared to it-look like junkyards!

Cathy Tolan- I like the wide steps, quick lunch line, and the art room is no longer a closet.

Amy Nelson- I'm disappointed that we can't ride in the elevator.

Jean Walker- I like it, especially the carpeting.

Gretchen Nies- I like the new locker room, but I dislike the vandalism.

Julie Donald- I think it's really nice, although I dislike that we can't sit on the carpet.

Mr. Goulet- I like the quiet, and the only dislike is that it's too far to walk to the office from my room.

Kelly Kreutzian- My "likes" are the commons and the carpet, but the lockers are too low, and I wish we could sit on the carpet.

Mr. Miller- I dislike that I still don't have my own room by myself, alone, solitarily, to meditate. There's no access to a phone without walking the Marathon, but it's nice and quiet and a good atmosphere for learning!

Bruce Rasmussen- I like the carpet, it's great, but too bad we're going to have to be paying for it when we're 60 or 70!

Paul Konopacki- I like it, but the only thing was that I wish that it had been finished when we got here in the fall.

Mike Seager- I enjoyed it very much. My "likes" were the rooms, and my "dislikes" were the teachers, rules and regulations.

David Magnuson- I like the carpet and the study halls, but I dislike the many stairs we have to climb.

Debby McNeely- My "likes" are the more room we have than last year, and my "dislikes" are the too bright colors.

Ted Neely- I dislike the lack of heat in all the rooms.

Kent Petersen- I like the carpet, the new gym, but I dislike the lack of seats in the commons.

Todd Route- The building is great, but I dislike the lack of enough time between classes.

Mike Soltau- I like the great Home Ec. room.

Marney Swerkstrom- I dislike the rule of sitting on the carpet, but I like the new lockers and the air conditioning in the study halls.

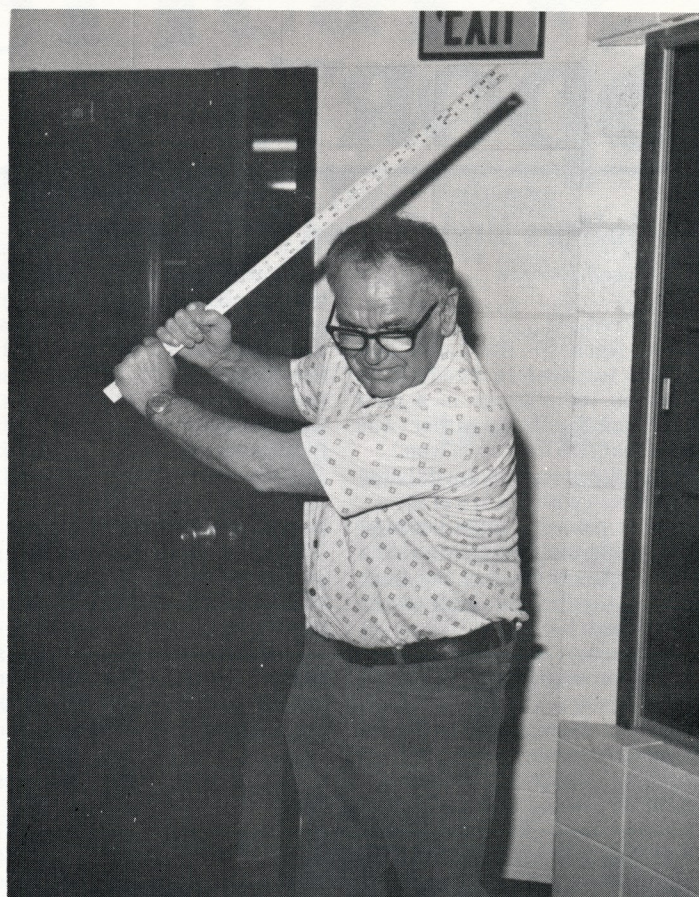

Bill Lehman- I dislike the locker size-there's not enough room for books, but I like the new Home Ec. room.

Rian Stevens- I like it because it's pretty nice and new, but in my opinion, I don't think it was worth the money that was spent on it.

Bruce Rowe- I like the more room that there is this year, but I dislike how people treat it by wrecking it.

Laura Nygren- I like the building itself, but there still are a lot of kinks to be worked out.

Miss Boldig- The music facilities are excellent, and the performance and rehearsal areas are well-designed. It's something the students and faculty can be proud of!

Mr. Dolny, boys' golf coach, will be fishing for salmon in Alaska this summer.

The Big Break

By Ann Langel

Students often look forward to summer for swimming, playing tennis, and other activities. Here's the inside story as to what the teachers will be doing during their big summer break.

Mr. Nygren and Mrs. Schwartz somewhat agreed as to what they're going to spend their summer doing. Mrs. Schwartz said she was going to do as little as possible, and Mr. Nygren was going to do "nothing".

Mr. Kinzler is going to finish up his Driver's Education behind-the-wheel-training kids, fish, camp, and let his wife paint the house.

Traveling is what Mrs. (Krey) Jensen is going to be doing. She plans to visit Glacier National Park and visit her daughter in Montana, and also clean her house.

Mr. Miller will be looking for a job at Durex, camping with his family, playing softball, and gardening, while Mr. Lake will be fishing and painting.

Babysitting will take a lot of time out of Mr. Messar's schedule, says this summer golfer and softball player. Mr. Messar also plans to garden and work on his house.

When I asked Miss Boldig what she was going to do during vacation, she replied, "What vacation?", because the next time most of us will see Miss Boldig, she will be Mrs. Miller. She is getting married this summer and is also going to be teaching summer school.

Miss Brom is also going to be working and gardening, while we will see Miss Sondergaard going to summer school at the UW-Stout. She also plans to take ceramics and photography courses.

Mrs. Winchell and Mrs. Petersen will have their hands full all summer long with their new babies. If they need a babysitting service, they should bring their kids over to Mr. Goulet's, where he also will be taking care of his own kids this summer and be playing golf.

Mr. Knudson will be found looking for a job after he makes his move to Kentucky or Tennessee.

"Busy!" is what Mr. King will be during the long vacation. He will be working at the school, taking students to Green Lake to the state F.F.A. convention, going on a 4-5 day canoe trip with some F.F.A. boys, having an open shop workshop where farm machinery repainting, tractor painting, and other courses will be held. He plans on attending the annual Ag. teachers summer conference, and will be busy with Polk County Fair activities, the livestock market auction, and is going to spend some time with his family, if he can fit it in.

Lastly, Mr. Dolny will be taking a trip to Alaska and fish for salmon.

Both teams of men started out from the North Pole; therefore, both traveled south. But one team went over one side of the earth; the other team, over the other side.

Luck Places Second in Quad Linksman Split Golf Opener

By Lowell Johnson

The Luck Cardinals golf squad, opened the season on April 24 at Cumberland and gained a split with Cumberland and Spooner, in a triangular golf match.

Spoooner won the match with a team total of 164 strokes. Luck was second with 168 strokes, and Cumberland finished last with 176 strokes.

Rain and cold caused some difficulties, but it did not bother the golfers all that much. Here are what the Luck golfers shot.

On April 27 the boys' tracksters traveled to Osceola for a quadrangular track meet with Osceola, Grantsburg, and Glenwood City.

The Osceola Chieftains were awarded 84½ points, easily out-pointing second place Luck with 29½ points. Grantsburg placed third with 27½ points, and Glenwood City came in fourth with 22½ points.

Paul Konopacki held most of the weight for the Cardinals as he had three firsts in the 330 low hurdles, the 220 yard dash, and the 100 yard dash.

Luck Coach Stan Miller said, "We're continuing to improve, but we didn't get that many points because of lack of participants out for the team."

The team traveled to New Richmond for the 13th annual New Richmond Relays on May 4.
