LUCK HIGH SCHOOL

OCTOBER 1, 1971

Homecoming Queen Candidates

This year's eager, energetic and enthusiastic Queen candidates are:

Ann Schwartz
Debbie Kirk
Jeanne Pedersen

These three girls were selected by the Senior class. Their campaign will run from Monday of Homecoming week, Sept. 27, to Thursday, Sept. 30. Students will vote for the candidate of their choice Thursday. The announcement of the 1971 Homecoming Queen will be made at the Pep Fest on Friday.

The girl selected as Homecoming Queen will make her first appearance in the parade, riding with the Homecoming King, Don Bohn. The King and Queen will be crowned at half-time of the game Friday night.

Good luck, girls.

HOMECOMING IS

Happiness

Old grads enjoying young ideas.

Memories of "the good old days."

Emptying the Student Council Treasury and selling cookies to fill it back up.

Calling up your old high school sweetheart and finding out she's got five kids.

Getting all sentimental and feeling a lump in your throat when you think of "your" year at good old LVHS.

HOMECOMING 1971 'SUPERSTAR'

The theme "Superstar" reflects the spirit, enthusiasm and optimism of the students of L.H.S. We hope to see all the students turn out for the activities planned for Homecoming on October 1, 1971.

The committees have already been busy organizing and planning. Let's give a little recognition to the co-chairmen of these hard-working committees. The co-chairmen of the various committees are: Gym, Terry Gruener and Ann Schwartz; Pep Fest, Teddi Anderson and Kris Route; Publicity, Susan Olsen; Parade, Dale Skow and Sue Taylor; Field Decorations, Don Bohn; Clean-up, Philip Madsen; Queen's Float, Lindsey Wallin and Debbie Kirk.

Homecoming week we see gym decorations going up and class floats gradually taking shape. The spirit and excitement grows throughout the week in anticipation of the Homecoming day activities.

Friday comes, and we see the product of all the committees' hard work. On Friday morning student teachers will take over the classes. This is a new project at L.H.S. Let's do our best to make it work so that future classes can enjoy this activity.

The Pep Fest begins at 1:00 p.m. and it promises to be bigger and better than ever. The Pep Club and L Club skits are always the highlight of the Pep Fest. We also expect to see games and other entertainment.

The Luck high school band will be a special feature of the Pep Fest, providing the best in musical entertainment. The announcement of the 1971 Homecoming Queen will be made at the Pep Fest.

The parade, beginning at 3:00, will display the class floats. Following the parade is the snake dance which will take the students back to the school. Contests and games are planned for this time.

The game at 8:00 is the climax of the day of activities. The Half-Time program includes a show by the Luck High School marching band and announcement of 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place of the class floats. The highlight of the program is the crowning of the 1971 Homecoming King and Queen by the 1970 King and Queen, Randy Erickson and Claire Cook.

The Cardinal Victory will keep the excitement alive throughout the dance which begins at 9:30 and ends at 12:30.

Cardinal fans will be enthusiastically backing their team on Friday night. This will, in turn, cause the Luck Cardinals to live up to the theme, "Superstar."

Attendants

During Homecoming be on the look-out for a cute little, 5'3-1/2" blond beauty riding on the queen's float. This will be none other than the freshman attendant, Carol Bille. Carol chose the game as her most favorite of all the events during Homecoming. But we know that Carol really would choose the dance if she had a date!?!?!?

Congratulations, Carol.

LORI ELLEFSON

Blonde hair, blue eyes, and a big smile is Lori Ellefson, the sophomore attendant. Lori says being homecoming attendant gives her butterflies, and she said that homecoming is fun.

Congratulations, Lori.

HOLLY RENZ

Holly Renz is the junior attendant for L.H.S. She is 5'3-1/2" tall, has brown hair and dark brown eyes. Holly's favorite class is typing. She has no favorite Homecoming event because she enjoys all of them. When asked what it felt like to be chosen attendant, she replied that it made her feel all funny inside.

Congratulations, Holly.

QUEEN CANDIDATES up in the air about Homecoming: Ann S., Debbie K., Jeanne P.

ATTENDANTS: Carol B., Holly R., Lori E.

FHA Convention

Four Luck Future Homemaker officers, Faye Jorgensen, Teddi Anderson, Sharon Erickson and Debbie Kirk, along with Mrs. Mattson made the annual trip to Green Lake for the state convention. The convention lasted for three days and all members attending felt it was a worthwhile trip and got a lot of new ideas for improvement. Much was done to improve the Wisconsin association, now in its twenty-fifth year, including revision of the constitution and a new song.

Homecoming Co-Chairmen

L.H.S. is very fortunate this year to have such great seniors in charge of our Homecoming. These two students who were chosen are none other than (ning) and Genius Jean (Pedersen). With the great effort that these two individuals put forth we should be able to make this homecoming a very successful one.

I managed to tear Harold and Jeanne away from this project for enough time to ask a few interesting questions.

Harold--I asked Harold if it was an honor to be elected Co-Chairman out of all the other fine senior boys, and he said he didn't especially like it. Too much work! Among his many other talents, Harold has the ability to prognosticate. He has chosen Luck to win by 8 points. C'mon guys, let's not let him down. Besides being Co-Chairman, Harold is also the M.C. during the Pep Fest Friday. Let's give him support and laugh at all his funnies.

Jeanne -- Jeanne was glad to be chosen as Co-Chairman because it gives her a chance to organize things which she enjoys doing. It lets her be with others and work together as a school. She's very pleased with how everything is coming along so far. Keep up the good work!

The dance time is 9:30-12:30. The band we have been so fortunate to get to play for us is Nirvana. We expect a good turnout. So let's all be there.

Opening Of School For L. H. S.

Classes for Luck were in session on Monday, the 30th of August.

The first day of school always seems to be filled with so much excitement. Don't you agree, students? With the same fun routine of getting our books, lockers, and phy ed. baskets assigned to us, and let's not forget blowing our summer's hard earned money on lunch tickets, activity tickets and book fees.

We were glad to see a number of new faces at L. H.S., seven to be exact. But with the new students there always have to be some who leave us too. Unfortunately this year our enrollment was decreased from the number of last year's attendance.

Our faculty has seen some changes also, with a new instructor in each of the following classes: English, Drivers Education, Shop, and assistant in the Physical Education department. A change has also been made in the Administration department at L.H.S. A former faculty member has changed positions and became the principal. Mr. Larson has already made many changes at L.H.S., and many more are apt to

NEW TEACHERS: Miss Berg and Mr. Kinzler.

MISS BARBARA BERG

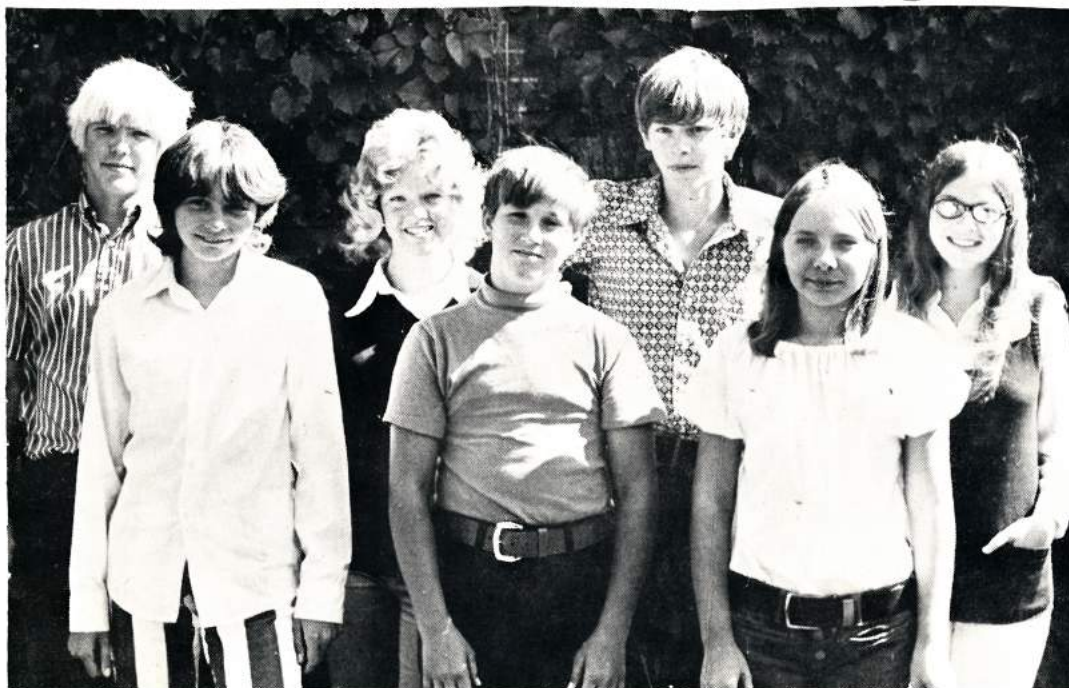

Miss Berg is Luck's new English and Remedial Reading teacher. She attended Augsburg College in Minnesota and her hometown is Dallas, Wis. When she's not teaching you may find her enjoying a spectator sport, cooking, knitting, reading or crocheting. She likes the school system, says the kids are ok, and thinks teaching at Luck might be fun! Good Luck!

MR. JOHN KINZLER

Luck's new shop and Driver's Education teacher is Mr. John Kinzler. Mr. Kinzler is married, has a little boy, is a graduate from Stout State University of Menomonie, and his hometown is Sauk Prairie, Wisconsin. He enjoys fishing, and if he can't do that, he would like to eat steak and drink (Milk). Mr. Kinzler thinks we have a fine school, the kids are friendly, and the food is good!

be in progress. These changes are for the better whether we students realize it or not. I feel the burden should not rest on one man. As a whole, we should all be able to give a little and make this year a memorable one. C'mon Kids!!!

SEPTEMBER IS HERE

MR. LARSON

In case you haven't noticed, Mr. Larson is our new school principal.

He has taken the job because he feels he has some good, workable ideas for our school. Mr. Larson would like school to become a place where the kids would enjoy coming to, by having more school activities.

The student council is an important part of our high school and Mr. Larson would also like to have more ideas from the student body, and will work to have these ideas accepted by the school board. If you have an idea that you feel could be worked out, tell one of the student council members.

Mr. Larson feels that discipline is important in school and that rules should be enforced. He says that the only rule that is broken often is the one on tardiness. (Get to your class on time!) With all the rules enforced we should turn out better high school graduates.

Mr. Larson feels that many changes could be made in the way Homecoming is run. The parade is out dated and too much money is spent on the float, for the amount they are used. He would like to see a Homecoming where everyone in high school takes part. The festivities would start after lunch, everyone would meet and have a pep fest, which would include: Contests, races, games and teachers would take part too.

Being the principal is a big change for Mr. Larson. It is a big responsibility, but he also misses teaching a little.

You are doing a great job, Mr. Larson. Keep up the good work!

STUDENTS OR ROBOTS

Many teachers demand that students accept conclusions made in the past.

But each generation of students must re-think its own reasons for these conclusions. And if the conclusions are wrong, reason must right them.

Or should students simply accept answers, right or wrong . . .

In Love With Life

This article was taken from a recent Ann Landers column. Perhaps some of you would like to clip it out to keep in your wallet-next to your drivers license.

Dear Readers: If the column today is macabre or depressing, I apologize to those of you who look to me for a laugh. But I was deeply moved by a Kalamazoo teen-ager who asked me to reprint this fantasy, which appeared in the Tiger Tattler a school Newspaper.

Title: In Love With Life-or How It Would Be If I Were Killed in a Automobile Accident.

Agony claws my mind. I am a statistic. When I first got here I felt very much alone. I was overwhelmed with grief and I expected to find sympathy.

I found no sympathy. I saw only thousands of others whose bodies were as badly mangled as mine. I was given a number and placed in a category. The category was called "Traffic Fatalities."

The day I died was an ordinary school day. How I wish I had taken the bus! But I was too cool for the bus. I remember how I wheedled the car out of Mom. "Special favor," I pleaded. "All the kids drive." When the 2:50 bell rang I threw my books in the locker. I was free until 8:40 tomorrow morning! I ran to the parking lot-excited at the thought of driving a car and being my own boss. Free!

It doesn't matter how the accident happened. I was goofing off - going too fast. Taking crazy chances. But I was enjoying my freedom and having fun. The last thing I remember was passing an old lady who seemed to be going awfully slow. I heard a deafening crash and felt a jolt. Glass and steel flew everywhere. My whole body seemed to be turning inside out. I heard myself scream.

Suddenly I awakened. It was very quiet. A police officer was standing over me. Then I saw a doctor. My body was mangled. I was saturated with blood.

Pieces of jagged glass were sticking out all over me. Strange that I couldn't feel anything. Hey, don't pull that sheet over my head. I can't be dead. I'm only 17. I've got a date tonight. I'm supposed to grow up and have a wonderful life. I haven't lived yet. I can't be dead.

Later I was placed in a drawer. My folks had to identify me. Why did they have to see me like this? Why did I have to look at Mom's eyes when she faced the most terrible ordeal of her life? Dad suddenly looked like an old man. He told the man in charge, "Yes - he is our son."

The funeral was a weird experience. I saw all my relatives and friends walk toward the casket. They passed by, one by one, and looked at me with the saddest eyes I've ever seen. Some of my buddies were crying. A few of the girls touched my hand and sobbed as they walked away.

Please - somebody - wake me up! Get me out of here. I can't bear to see my mom and dad so broken up. My grandparents are so racked with grief they can barely walk. My brother and sister are like zombies. They move like robots. In a daze. Everybody. No one can believe this. And I can't believe it either.

Please don't bury me! I'm not dead! I have a lot of living to do! I want to laugh and run again. I want to sing and dance. Please don't put me in the ground. I promise if you give just one more chance, God, I'll be the most careful driver in the whole world. All I want is one more chance. Please, God. I'm only 17.

The path of least resistance attracts most of the least.

Homecoming Outlook

The Homecoming processions start off this year with Mr. Nygren giving us some beautiful music in the parade. Following this we have floats built by each class showing the people in Luck that only a couple of classes know anything about making floats. Unfortunately we can't have a bonfire this year because

Badger Girls' State

By Jeanne Pedersen

B.G.S. was a great opportunity not only to learn more about our government and how it works, but also to meet many wonderful new people.

The state of Badger is actually a mythical state, yet very real to its 506 citizens. Badger consists of 10 cities and 5 counties. I was in Elm city in the county of Babcock. Each floor of the dorm was a city, so we were in with the same group of girls during both our city activities and the small amount of leisure time we had a very busy schedule all week. The days were filled with lectures, city or county meetings, party conventions, and all the other political activities we took part in. The first order of business was the election of our city officials. The nominations and the primary were done within an hour. Then we had the thrill of voting for the first time. Later that week we had the important job of voting for our state official. A very formal inauguration was held following that election. Justice Wilkie performed the swearing-in exercises.

The B.G.S. band consisted of 150 girls and I was proud to be part of that activity. We had only four rehearsals of 1-1/2 to 2 hours each, but our Friday night concert was very impressive. We even got a standing ovation. The girls who were involved in Choir and Special Activities combined their talents to put on a of a state law.

There is a pause of excitement until 8:00 when Luck plays Webster. Of course there will be a Cardinal victory with those hard hitting Cards and that fabulous pass rush from our right tackle, Larry Wood.

Then on to the dance where the Cards will celebrate part of their overwhelming victory. Where they celebrate the rest is unknown . . .

program we called "Folk Fair." The program consisted of singing, dancing, and oral interpretation of prose. Again, it was very impressive to see the fine program that the girls had put together in so short a time.

Along with the fun was the great learning experience we had. Taking an active part in the small scale government system that we set up was more meaningful than just reading about it in a textbook.

Everywhere I felt the excitement and enthusiasm of the girls. Everyone was willing and eager to take part and contribute for the benefit of the rest. I wish it was possible for more people to be able to participate in this program. Congratulations to the girl who attends B.G.S. next year!

Book Review

"Eleanor and Franklin"

This book about Franklin D. Roosevelt and his wife, Eleanor is written by author, Joseph Lash. The big-thick book reads like a novel and is based on Mrs. Roosevelt's papers.

This book is fascinating because the Lucy Page-Mercer Rutherford involvement is not glossed over. Instead Lash takes the position that F.D.R.'s romance with Lucy helped make Mrs. Roosevelt the mature woman she was. He contends that Mrs. Roosevelt, who offered her young husband a divorce after 13 years of marriage always believed that F.D.R. did not accept her offer because he wanted to be President, not because of his love for her and their children. A certain bitterness or resignation may be accounted for because of this experience, Lash believes.

This biography (of a real marriage) will be fine winter reading. Norton is the publisher, October 15 is the release date.

Mr. Larson explained how the President of the Student Council is chosen. We discussed what the Student Council should be doing. We set up the schedule of who sells concessions at the football games. It is as follows: Amery - Seniors, Osceola - Freshmen, Webster - Juniors, and Unity - Sophomores. We talked about some activities that we could sponsor such as: dances, taking buses to plays, concerts, etc. Meetings will be held when they are necessary. At Cheerleading Camp Julie T. and Holly R. spent many strenuous hours practicing new cheers. Here are their comments. "We learned eight but could only remember six to bring back. Every night at 5:00 we went in front of a group and did the cheers we learned that day, and they really cut us down.

Sir Slob And The Princess

A slightly fractured fairy tale, this play tells of how a n'er-do-well kitchen scullion wins the hand of the beautiful and unpredictable Princess Rosebud. The King has decided it is high time for his daughter to marry. After setting a test himself, which all the prospective suitors easily pass, he puts the problem in the hands of the Magician. The result is a test so difficult that nobody wants to try it. Nobody, that is, except Slob. Dubbed the Knight of the Kitchen by his foppish employers, Sir Slob goes off into the Deep Woods with his faithful companion Nag, the talking horse. There in rapid succession he encounters a lion, a witch, a monster and various other dangers to domestic tranquility.

Chiefly-by means of accident, his native ignorance and good luck, and an incorrigibly honest nature, he pratfalls past dangers and stumbles over all obstacles to win the hand of the Princess. And of course, to live happily every after.

Coaches Outlook

Mr. Steen: We can't afford any injuries. If we don't get more injuries, and we execute our offense and defense very well, we should be in the thick of the battle for the title. One major problem to overcome is fumbles and unnecessary penalties.

Mr. Reb: Barring injuries, we should come out on top or close to the top.

Mr. Miller: Season looks encouraging. We'll be in contention all the way, barring unforeseen injuries.

Summer Football Practice

On Wednesday, August 11, Luck High School began once again their football practice. They started out bright and early at 8:00 a.m. for an hour's practice on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. The contact practice started on Monday, August 16, at 7:30 a.m. until 9:30 a.m. The team and Coach Steen worked out a new offense and defense. There were 14 returning lettermen and 40 prospects in all.

Football Players Outlook

Kevin K.: I want to see Rick Davidsavor make it to the superbowl.

Mike D.: We'll go all the way to the Rose Bowl.

Barry Mortimore: With Luck's powerful line we'll go all the way.

Dean the Dream: No comment, until my leg gets better.

Rande G.: No comment, until Dean's leg gets better.

MR. STEEN

Coach Steen informs us that Webster is BIG this year, but with good effort by all who are concerned, a victory will be obtained. He would like to see Duane back in the game by then and the other Cardinals injury free.

He also said that Mr. Larson has really got the Homecoming project moving in relation to L.H.S. SPIRIT

GO-FIGHT-WIN CARDS!

Senior Outlook

Larry W.: Larry knows we're great this year, he says we have an unbeatable line but the backfield isn't as good. With a little help they might make it. Young Wood thinks that the Homecoming game will be very much a success.

Don M.: Don thinks this year's team is fabulous. Especially the front five on receiving.

Jeff O.: Of course we'll take the conference this year is Jeff's outlook. He says we have a lot of good experienced players on the team who know what they're doing.

Don B.: Don feels that there is no doubt that we're the best to come along. He claims that the fantastic line is the motivating force.

Gary B.: Young Byl thinks it's too early for him to tell. He thinks that all the injuries are holding the team from top performance.

Mike P.: With Layer occupying so much space and the great crop of seniors this is the year to victory!

Bruce J.: Other than the fact that we have some questionable injuries, everything out there is copesettic, and we have an ultrafabulous line.

Golf Team

Last year's golf team, consisting of Harold Gjerner, Mike Dolny, Gary Cogswell, Charlie Cogswell, and Robert Jerome Larson, worked their way to state.

They took second place in the regionals with the first 2 teams going to the sectional. In the Rice Lake Sectionals, they took first place by 21 strokes.

Down at state, there were 16 teams, Luck taking 13th place. Luck was the smallest school down there having 400 fewer students than the other schools. Last year's team was all under-classmen so we think they ought to be real tough this year with upcoming prospects.

SPORTS

Cards Defeat Warriors

Amery won the toss for Luck's conference opener and chose to kick. Luck had a fairly good return. In the first quarter Rick Giller had a 1 yard touchdown run. Jeff Olson missed the extra point. Luck scored again in the second quarter with a 1 yard touchdown run by Mike Pomerleau. Jeff Olson failed with the extra point. Luck was leading at half time 12-0. Amery started a comeback in the third quarter with a 6 yard touchdown run by Chuck Williamson. The extra point was no good. Mike Pomerleau came back in the 4th quarter for the Cards with a 6 yard touchdown run. Jeff Olson kicked the extra point and it was good. The final score was Luck 19, Amery 6. We hope the season continues!

Turtle Lake Game

On Friday, September 3, Luck took on Turtle Lake for Luck's opener of the season. This non-conference game started by Turtle Lake kicking off to Luck. When our opponents got the ball, they went all the way down to about the 1 yard line, and their quarterback went in for the score. Their extra point was no good, but Luck came back in the 2nd quarter with a 60-yard run by Rande Giller for a touchdown. The 2 point conversion was unsuccessful. Again, in the third quarter, Rande stormed in for a 7 yard touchdown, with the conversion point no good. Turtle Lake came back, scored a touchdown, put the ball through the uprights and won the game 13 to 12.
