LUCK HIGH SCHOOL

April 5, 1973

THOMAS DANZINGER

The 7'2" guy with long green straight hair, curly teeth and purple eyes claims he weighs about 2,200¹/₄ pounds. Also he claims to be our new Ag teacher. When asked, this is the way Mr. Danzinger described himself. Maybe we should lone him a mirror!!

Mr. Danzinger came to Luck from Rice Lake where he did his intern teaching. He got his education at the University of Wisconsin in River Falls.

Outside of school you might see Mr. Danzinger out hunting or fishing because like many guys he enjoys these sports. For a hobby he likes collecting guns. So Beware! If you ever see him in a restaurant or out at the drive-in, you'll probably see him eating onion rings, for this is his favorite food. When asked what he thought about the students he paused and made a few remarks but then said he thought they were friendly and outgoing. Welcome to Luck., Mr. Danzinger.

Housing In Madison

All over the place you are hearing kids talking about the houses they had. Some are good and others bad. Here are some opinions.

"The whole thing is stupid, the houses were too far away and you had to take a bus everywhere."

"We should stay in dorms."

The house was unprepared, they did it just for the money."

"It was o.k."

"I wasn't at the house long enough to tell just by sleeping there."

"Excellent."

"You should know where you are staying before you go down so you can get to know your area, and your way around more."

"Didn't like it."

Not enough freedom."

April Fools!! Happy

Sectional Cardinals Fly South

First Night: Luck vs. Altoona - Luck went into the game with the longest winning streak in the state, defeating Altoona 55-49 for another victory. Luck started out kind of slow but stayed with Altoona. At the end of the first quarter Luck trailed by 3. At times during the second quarter Luck was down by 10. Luck rallied to end the half behind 29-24. During the third quarter Luck came out and played defense, allowing Altoona one field goal. Luck tied it up in the fourth quarter, helped by 4 free throws by Mike Dolny, and went on to win 55-49

Second Night: Luck vs. Ondossagon -

Championship game. Luck Cardinals advanced to the State Tourney after they roared past the Ondossagon Aggies 65-50. Luck's press was not as effective Saturday, but they led through the whole night. Going in at the half with only an 8 point lead, Luck came out in the second half and connected with a few long passes and increased their lead to 13 or more at times. The Aggies started scoring during the fourth quarter and narrowed it to 9. With 3 technical fouls on the Aggies it was about all over for them. The Cards then rallied to win the game and the right to advance to the State Tournament.

INTERVIEW OF LAURIE HANSEN:

Ham of the Month

What did it feel like to be on television?

Not very different.

Did you feel silly wearing your Cardinal suit?

No, not any different from

What Turns You On?

JEFF H. - S. P.

DALE - The stuff you do in class

LEE M. - Jeff H.

ROCKY C. - Davidsavor

ordinary days. Just that people weren't used to it.

What were some of the questions and answers?

"What are you?" - a Cardinal. "What is the hardest thing to get used to?" - My tail. "How did you get started?" - Laurie Kreuzer made it for me, and I was the only one dumb enough to wear this stupid thing.

What do you do when people ask for your autograph?

Laugh and tell them they're crazy.

And what are you going to say when you receive your Oscar?

Thank you!!

Sunday's Homecoming

It all happened on Sunday in Amery, where most of the faithful Luck fans met the basketball players and coaches. The team was escorted by the police from Amery to Luck with an endless line of cars following the boys. Dolny and Reb headed the parade followed by the cheerleaders, then the team. People standing along the curb waving their red bandanas also added to the joyful occasion. The gym was then filled with students and adults waiting for the show to start. Ted Anderson, Lou Coen, and Jess Peterson said a few words and the band played. Dolny then said some thankful words about the team and the game. Cheerleaders, coaches wives and even the players received flowers. Pictures were taken of the boys and the trophy and Dolny introduced each player. It ended with Rande and the players giving Mr. Dolny a trophy for all his years of coaching. We all thank the boys and everyone helping in the tournaments.

Hingery, dingery, don,
Three mice ran up the gong,

They gnawed there together,

Released the bell tether,

Bingety, bangety, bong!

Heed Not The Way of the Ant

"Now children," said the teacher, "there's a wonderful example in the life of the ant. Every day, the ant works all day. Every day the ant is busy. And in the end, what happens?"

A voice from the back of the room answered: "Someone steps on him."
